

THE WALPOLE FOOTLIGHTERS

PRESENT

G O L D
I N T H E
H I L L S

A Melodrama by J. Frank Davis

HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM

WALPOLE, MASSACHUSETTS

Friday, Nov. 16th, 1934

Admission 75c

Curtain 8:15

S E E

"THE OLD HOMESTEAD", Nellie's Temptation—Nellie in the clutches of Richard Murgatroyd—The blow for defenseless womanhood.

Big Mike's Beer Garden and Dance Hall. Honest John Dalton a fugitive from justice—The hair raising escape of Nellie and John from the toils of the underworld—

The Old Homestead once more—The mortgage about to be foreclosed—The great snowstorm—Nellie still pursued by the villain—The startling denouement.
Gorgeous Gowns—Splendid Sets—Mammoth Mobs! !

H E A R

ALL THE RECENT SONG SUCCESSES

“Home, Sweet Home”, “Hearts and Flowers”, “Then You’ll Remember Me”, “A Bird in a Gilded Cage”, “Sidewalks of New York”, and many others.

Also High Class Vaudeville Acts

A Moral and Uplifting Drama! Every Mother Owes it to Her Daughter to see and Hear the Lesson Contained Therein—Ignorance is Sin!

CAST OF CHARACTERS

Speaker of the Prologue, John Goss; Lizzie Jones, Ethel Page; Barbara Stanley, Emily Smith; Hiram Stanley, W. Robert Anderson; Nell Stanley, Evelyn Jones; John Dalton, Everett Dimock; Richard Murgatroyd, James Sullivan; Sam Slade, Charles Bean.

Jenkins, Warren Smith; A Derelict, John Phelan; Big Mike Slattery, Michael Downing; Pete the Rat, Charles Sumner; Old Kate, Jessie Tatro; Slick Steve, Edward Travers, Jr.; Little Tommy, Eleanor McLean; Chuck Connors, William Forssell; Reginald Vanderlop, Howard Robinson; Mrs. Vanderlop, Doris Maxfield; Edith Vanderlop, Kay Louise Goss; James Glue, John Goss; Rose Robinson, Ruth Balch; Bill the Dip, Robert Vincent; One Punch Dugan, Warren Smith; Bowery Girls: Margaret Sullivan, Ruth Luce, Helen Newcomb, Marjorie Smith and Ragnhild Johnson; Pianist, Gladys Boulter.