

THE WALPOLE FOOTLIGHTERS

Present For Their PATRONS

“PERSONAL APPEARANCE”

By LAWRENCE RILEY

BIRD SCHOOL AUDITORIUM

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 4, 1938 — 8:00 P. M.

REFRESHMENTS

DANCING

— CAST OF CHARACTERS —

(In the order of their appearance)

CAROLE ARDEN .....	Betty Ann Coty
GILBERT GORDON .....	George Carr
GLADYS KELCEY .....	Lillian Beaulieu
AUNT KATE BARNABY .....	Julia Broadley
JOYCE STRUTHERS .....	June Shattuck
CHESTER NORTON (Bud) .....	Richard Reed
MRS. STRUTHERS (Addie) .....	Marjorie Hemmerly
CLYDE PELTON .....	Edward Travers
GENE TUTTLE .....	James Sullivan
JOHNSON .....	Kingsley Perry
JESSIE .....	Martha McLauchlan

SCENE

ACT ONE

SCENE 1—The Grand Theatre in Scranton, Pennsylvania. An evening in October, during the showing of the film, “Drifting Lady,” and the personal appearance of its star, Carole Arden.

SCENE 2—The living room of the Struthers’ house between Scranton and Wilkesbarre on Route Six. The following afternoon.

ACT TWO

SCENE 1—The living room. A half hour later.

SCENE 2—The living room. One o’clock the next morning.

ACT THREE

The living room. Nine o’clock that day.

DIRECTOR .....	John Goss
ASSISTANT TO DIRECTOR .....	Martha McLauchlan
STAGE MANAGER .....	Carl Sewall
PROPERTIES .....	Elaine Howe

Produced by special arrangement with WALTER H. BAKER COMPANY